

Cost of Attendance

What is "cost of attendance?"

When planning for college expenses, you will want to consider "cost of attendance," which is the sum of tuition, housing, and personal expenses (which range from textbooks to travel to shoes).

What are the tuition and fees at The Travel Academy?

The tuition and fees listed below cover entire 10-week program. The figures below are for the 2018-19 academic year.

Tuition and Fees	$6900.00
CPR Certification (Optional)	$25.00
Housing/Crew Quarters (Student Housing Services LLC)	$1650.00
Refundable Housing Deposit	$250.00

How should I plan for personal expenses?

Every college student has personal expenses that should be taken into account when planning finances. The Travel Academy estimates the following for the 2018-19 academic year. Many students keep their expenses under these amounts by spending responsibly.

Cost of Attendance Worksheet

Student Living Expenses – (Plan on 11 weeks)

Travel (cost prior to, during, and after program completed)
Bedding & Towels
Groceries
Phone Expense
Laundry
Haircut/Hair Care
Clothing & Dry Cleaning
Entertainment, Restaurants, Taxi/Uber
Medications
Personal Care (shampoo, laundry soap, makeup, etc.)
Total Living Expenses
Total to Begin Class
Total Living Expenses
Grand Total

Things to Consider

Airfare, cost of driving car to school
 Can bring from home
 $30-$100 per week
 Optional
 $5.00 per load 2 per week
 As needed
 Bring from home, Dry Cleaning = $15/outfit
 Optional
 As Required
 As Required

Do you plan to work while attending school?
YES / NO

Student Name: _____

Date: _____